

DR LEON WAKEFIELD CLARK
MBBS, FRANZCOG, FRCOG

Dr Leon Clark has been Chief Executive Officer of Sydney Adventist Hospital since April 2002. He has a strong clinical background as well as administrative expertise.

Originally an Obstetrician and Gynaecologist, Dr Clark was a pioneer in his chosen sub-specialty of in vitro fertilisation and was honoured as IVF Director of the Year in 1992.

He is a past president and current Council member of the Australian Private Hospitals Association, as well as serving on the boards of several other organisations including Hamlin Fistula Australia. Born in Wagga Wagga, New South Wales, Dr Clark is married to Jan, a Registered Nurse and Genetic Counsellor, and has three children, two step children and six grandchildren.